

Report Cards

Report cards are issued at the end of every quarter and taken home by the scholars. Parents may receive an electronic version of their scholar's report card upon request to the Front Office. Report cards are always accessible via the InfiniteCampus Parent Portal as well.

Safety and Security

The principal of a school campus is the main authority in charge. All persons including staff, students, parents, visitors are required by law to obey lawful orders from the principal. Failure to do so can be viewed as "disruption of an educational institution" and could result in criminal action against the person. This law also requires anyone on campus to follow all the set rules and guidelines of the campus including the surrounding streets and parking lot during school hours.

Arizona Revised Statute (ARS 13:02911) DISRUPTION OF AN EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTION

Arizona law makes it illegal to interfere with or disrupt a school.

Who does this law apply to?

This law applies to everyone. Any person (including students, teachers, staff, strangers, etc.) who interferes with or disrupts school breaks this law.

What does interference with or disruption of school actually mean?

The law says that interference with or disruption of school includes any act that might lead to school being evacuated, closed, or cancelled.

The law says that this kind of act could be:

- Using loud, profane, or angry language on school property
- Threatening to hurt someone,
- Threatening to cause damage,
- Trying to disrupt school on purpose, or
- Refusing to obey a lawful order from the principal or executive director of the corporation.

What happens to someone who breaks this law?

First, the law says that the school can ask whoever is breaking the law to leave.

Second, if the person who is breaking the law happens to be a student, faculty member, or staff member, the law says that the school can take disciplinary action. This could include being suspended or expelled from school.

Finally, depending on the kind of act, the person who broke the law can be charged with a crime.

Ranging from a class 1 misdemeanor to a class 6 felony, this is a serious matter than can carry serious punishment, like time in jail or expensive fines.

Search
